

Yorm Bopha (f)

Adoption Status: Not Adopted

Country: Cambodia

Occupation: Cambodian land rights activist noted for her opposition to development and forced evictions around Boeung Kak Lake.

Detained Since: January 21, 2014

Charges: N/A

Sentence: N/A

Additional: Bopha was sentenced to three years' imprisonment for "intentional violence with aggravating circumstances" on December 27, 2012, leading several human rights groups to protest on her behalf. On November 22, 2013, Bopha was released on bail and on June 14, 2013, her sentence was reduced to two years' imprisonment. According to Front Line Defenders, on January 21, 2014, Bopha was again arrested while petitioning outside the U.S. and French embassies for the release of 23 people who were jailed during a clampdown on worker's protests earlier in January.

Not Adopted